Professional Preparation

University of Chicago	Ph.D., Psychology	1996
East Asian Languages Summer Institute	Adv. Chinese Comp. Cert.	1990
Goethe Insts., Rothenburg, Prien-am-Chiemsee, & Vienna	Kl. Deutches Sprachdiplom	1985
Albert-Ludwigs Universität Freiburg, Germany	semester in Linguistics	1984
Reed College	B.A., Psychology	1981

Current Position

Senior Staff Researcher, University of Chicago, Psychology Department. 2008-present

Postdoctoral Appointments

Center for Interdisciplinary Research, Research Fellow, Embodied Communication Research Group, Bielefeld University, Bielefeld Germany. 2005-2007
University of Chicago, Research Associate & Lecturer, Psychology Department. 1996-2007
Wright State University, Asst. Research Professor, Computer Sci. & Engin. Dept. 1999-2003
National Yang Ming University, Taiwan, National Science Council Research and Teaching Fellow, Center for Cognitive Neuropsychology. 1998-2002
Max-Planck Institute for Psycholinguistics, Cognitive Anthropology Research Group, Postdoctoral Fellow, Nijmegen, The Netherlands. 1995-1996

Areas of research

Multimodal communicative dynamics related to interpersonal rapport and interpersonal deception in face-to-face interactions.
Complex language use in individuals with Idiopathic Parkinson Disease, comparing outcomes of rehabilitative behavioral therapies.
Discourse factors in combined gesture, speech, and prosody production; cross-language.
Theoretical issues in modeling language production processes in Embodied Conversational Agents.
Evaluation and design of tools for visualization, annotation, query and analysis of multi-modal language data.
Left and right brain hemisphere contributions to language production in healthy individuals and in individuals with brain damage; evidence from speech, speech prosody, and gesture.
Cross-language and developmental comparative analyses of gesture in relation to speech; Spanish, Mandarin Chinese, Arabic, and English.
Gestural dimensions of signed language use, with particular reference to natural Taiwan Sign Language.

Editorial Board: Gesture, John Benjamins Publishing Company.

Ad hoc Reviewer: Brain and Language, Cognitive Science, Discourse Processes, First Language, Gesture, International Journal of Semantic Computing, Journal of Experimental Social Psychology, Journal of Pragmatics, Journal of Speech, Language and Hearing Research, Language and Cognition, Language and Cognitive Processes, Language Resources and Evaluation, and Phenomenology and the Cognitive Sciences.

U.S. National Science Foundation, invited reviewer

Linguistics Program, Human Language and Communication Program, Human and Social Dynamics, Cyber-Enabled Discovery and Innovation.

National Science Council (NSC), Taiwan, Republic of China, invited referee

NSC Outstanding Research Award candidate applications.

Awards

German Research Council (DFG) Research Fellowship	2005-2006
Taiwan National Science Council Post-Doctoral Fellowship	1998-1999
Dewey Prize Lectureship, University of Chicago Social Science Division	1995
National Resource Foundation / Title VI full grant for Chinese language study at Indiana University East Asian Summer Language Institute, Summer	1990
FLEP / FLAS grant for Chinese language study	1990
Tuition scholarship, Middlebury College Chinese Language School	1989
University of Chicago full four-year graduate fellowship and living stipend	1986-1990
Fulbright scholarship alternate candidate for research in West Germany	1984-1985
West German government full scholarship for summer language study	1980
National Science Foundation Undergraduate Research Participation Grant	1978
